

-ED PRONUNCIATION

PRONUNCIATION
-ID SOUND	When it comes after the sound: /d/ /t/
-t sound	When it comes after the sound (unvoiced): /p/ /f/ /s/ Sh Tch Etc.
-d sound	When it comes after other sounds (voiced) -i -r -n -l

-Remember, we are talking about sounds. For example: like ends in an -e, but the sound is a -k.

BE CAREFULL! Many adjectives use -ed forms (painted, for example), and there are these exceptions (only in adjectives are pronounced as -id sound): aged, dogged, ragged, blessed, learned, wicked, crooked, naked, wretched

/id/		/t/		/d/
Visited	Arrested	Talked	Lived	Discovered	Combined
Started	Waited	Worked	Danced	Notified	Studied
Wanted	Rested	Loved	Smoked	Explored	Stayed
Added	Accepted	Received	Arrived	Destroyed	Answered
Hated	Eliminated	Helped	Washed	Sweetened	Cleaned
rented	Decided	cooked	fixed	blackened	called