

1 Imagine that you work for an advertising company and you have to prepare an advertisement for a product. Draw the product you want to sell and write the slogan. Then write the sound accompaniment that can indicate special effects, non-conventional scores and riffs.

2 Write the names of the notes that are indicated. Then sing them.

1 Name the following objects and instruments and colour those that work with wind.

